WSCGA FOUNDATION GRANTS GO TO SIX TOP ACADEMIC TEAMS

LOS ALAMITOS - The Women's Southern California Golf Association Foundation (WSCGA) has, for the 10th-consecutive year, awarded six CIF Southern Section girls' golf teams a grant in recognition of their academic excellence this year.

The Academic Awards program is sponsored by the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim and Ford.

The two first place teams, San Luis Obispo and San Juan Hills, along with the runner-ups and third place recipients will receive their grants during an on-field presentation prior to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim game on April 29 vs. the Cleveland Indians.

The grants totaling $2,000 are issued based on the cumulative team grade point average. The top three girls' golf teams from schools with enrollments of 1,500 and above and 1,499 and below each receive grants ranging from $250 to $500.

"The Foundation is very pleased to again participate in this event, to support girls' golf, and to recognize their academic achievements," said Pat Blalock, WSCGA Executive Director.

The CIF Southern Section and the 570 member schools thank the WSCGA for their continued support of girls' high school golf in the Southern California area. WSCGA Foundation Grant Recipients:
