OAKS CHRISTIAN/VALENCIA BASEBALL PLAYOFF CONTEST

LOS ALAMITOS – After receiving information this morning from Oaks Christian High School about a potential violation of CIF Southern Section Bylaw 1524.2 prior to their wildcard baseball contest versus Valencia High School, and after requesting and receiving statements from both schools and the officials from that contest, it has been determined that at no time prior to the contest was a request made by Oaks Christian High School to the plate umpire to play that game under protest.

Due to the fact no protest was lodged by Oaks Christian at that time and based on statements made by both coaches to the plate umpire during their pregame meeting expressing no intent or interest in doing so, the result of yesterday's wild card contest will stand and Valencia will continue on in the CIF-SS baseball playoffs and play at Harvard-Westlake Friday.

The CIF-SS now considers this matter closed.
