REMEMBER

➤ If a coach does not include a libero number on the submitted lineup sheet, the team will not be able to use a libero for that set. The R2 should check the line up sheet . If the libero number is missing, verify with the coach that his/her team is not using the libero for that set. The R2 uses preventive officiating by asking the head coach if they intend to use the libero.

◆ NO LIBERO LISTED = NO LIBERO PLAYING

➤ The team may still use the libero for another set – but only if a libero number appears on the lineup sheet for that set.

REMEMBER

- Teams typically call time out when the other team is serving to try to halt the momentum and make adjustments.
- Scorer records “Tx” in box score and also writes in the score at the time of the time out in the timeout box (calling team’s score first).
- A team gets only two time outs per set. The scorer should tell the R2 and indicate to the R1 the number of time outs taken by both teams when a time out is called. If a third time out is called, the scorer should inform the R2 immediately.

REMEMBER

- If it becomes necessary to return to Server I, the scorer changes to a red pen for the second time through the serving order. If a third time through the rotation becomes necessary, it will be done in black (or blue) again.
- The Official Scorer is part of the team with the R1, R2, Libero Tracker, Timer and Line Judges.
- The score on the official score sheet is always considered to be the correct score!
- If there is a discrepancy and the R1 or R2 has definite knowledge, the score sheet may be adjusted. If the issue cannot be resolved, the official score sheet is the final answer.
- The scorer shouldn't hesitate to ask the R2 for help if/when it is needed – any issues need to be fixed while they are small and still manageable.

Have a successful volleyball season
