CIF-SS BASEBALL BATTING PRACTICE VIOLATION APPEALS

LOS ALAMITOS – The CIF Southern Section received appeals from both A.B. Miller and West Ranch High School's about potential violations of CIF Southern Section Bylaw 1524.2 prior to their second-round baseball contests versus Carpinteria and Yucaipa High School's, respectively.

The playoff bulletin, in addressing potential batting practice violations, states:

The penalty for batting practice with wiffle balls, softballs, baseballs, etc. may be forfeiture of the game.

After requesting and reviewing the video tape and written summation provided to this office it is the belief of the CIF-SS that the drills shown in these videos do not rise to the level of removing either team from the playoffs. Based on that decision, the appeals have been denied.

Yucaipa and Carpinteria will continue on in the CIF-SS baseball quarterfinal round.

The CIF-SS now considers this matter closed.
