C.I.F. ALL STAR GAMES BETWEEN THE SOUTHERN SECTION
(CIF-SS) AND THE LOS ANGELES CITY SECTION (CIF-LA)
1949 – 1955

During the late 1940’s and the early 1950’s there was a movement to have All Star football games to help promote high school sports and to raise money for charitable events. These events were regulated by the National Federation of High Schools (NFHS) based on income of the events and National Collegiate Athletic Association (N.C.A.A.) These games were very popular in the first few years and then tended to decline as more All Star games were created and the difficulty in finding sponsors. The largest of these games was the Shrine North vs. South All Star Football game sponsored by the Al Malaikali Temple from 1952 to 2006 in many different iterations.

The L.A. City vs. Southern Section C.I.F. All Star Football Game was the brain child of F. W. “Bill” Whitney, managing director of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation and co-sponsored by the Ninth District P.T.A. Association. All proceeds went to the San Diego County Children’s Dental Health Center. After 1955, the games changed to San Diego vs. Los Angeles format. San Diego players played for the Southern Section for the first seven years of the game (the San Diego C.I.F. Section was not founded until 1960.) CIF-SS vs. the CIF-LA would play again in 1992 in the short-lived Reebok Bowl.

TO FRIENDS OF THIS GAME:

Tonight's game promises to set a new high mark in attendance and gate receipts, thanks to your ever-increasing support over the four-year span of the Southern California College Prep Football Game.

That means more money for the San Diego Children's Dental Health Center which desperately requires funds to meet the needs of thousands of San Diego County children who otherwise might be dental cripples except for your help through this game.

Thousands of you bought tickets; hundreds of others wrote newspaper stories and headlines, or spoke over radio and TV, or gave advertising space, or sold tickets, or just told their friends to support the game, because it presents excellent football.

The Navy and Marine Corps have been vital factors in the development of this project, which would not be possible without their wholehearted cooperation.

Without the kindly and inspiring guidance of the high school football coaches of Los Angeles and Southern California, there could not be here tonight the splendid young players who may well be called the "All-Americans of Tomorrow".

To all of these who have contributed in some manner to the success of this project, we express our sincere appreciation.

THANK YOU!

4 S.D. Brothers Behind Annual All-Star Charity Grid Event

ROBERT BREITBARD

Foundation vice president

ELFORD BREITBARD
Secretary of philanthropy

WILL BREITBARD
Treasurer for foundation

Four San Diego brothers named Breitbard formed the athletic foundation bearing their name which next Wednesday will cosponsor the fifth annual College Prep All-Star Charity Football Game in Balboa Stadium.

The nonprofit Breitbard Athletic Foundation was organized in 1946 as a philanthropy of the brother businessmen to honor the county's outstanding amateur athletes.

The foundation annually selects the county's outstanding athlete to receive the Silver Plaque. It also honors athletes selected for mention in the area's "all-star" leagues.

Robert, former State College football star, who later coached there and at Hoover High School, is president of the foundation. Edward is vice president; Elford, secretary, and Will, treasurer.

Since establishing the foundation they have made possible the San Diego Children's Dental Health Center, where any needy child is welcomed.

The foundation also:

- Aids athletes in traveling to national competition.
- Maintains a movie sports library for schools and coaches.
- Obtains college scholarships for worthy boys.
- Represents San Diego in selections of the Helms Athletic Foundation of boys to be awarded honors by the Southern California Interscholastic Federation.

Helps in staging the annual prep all-star game for crippled children, sponsored by the Al Malikhah Shrine Temple of Los Angeles.

Supplies speakers and programs for service clubs and civic groups.

Takes part in activities of the Monday Quarterbacks Club.

Works with organizations planning events to honor returning San Diego athletes who have won national and international honors.

Cosponsor of the charity game, between 1953 graduates of Los Angeles high schools and graduates of other Southern California high schools, is the Ninth District Parent-Teacher Association.

Musical Show Here to Aid Polio Fund

"Spotlites on Polio," a musical revue, will be presented Sept. 4 in Russ Auditorium as a benefit for San Diego County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The variety show will feature a large cast of local and visiting performers, topped by Robert Young, screen star, who will be master of ceremonies.

Other artists include Don Howard, KSDO radio performer; the San Diego Serenaders, a vocal quartet, and a troupe from the Naval Air Station, headed by Skip Young, comedian.

The benefit is sponsored by the...

Mais, Davis Spark Grenier Eleven To Easy Triumph

By DON SLOPER

SAN DIEGO—A torrid aerial offensive spearheaded by St. Anthony's Bill "Beadeye" Mais and a yard-gulping ground attack sparked by San Diego's Charley Davis led the CIF All-Stars to a smashing 27-7 triumph over a Los Angeles high school all-star squad Friday night before 12,000 delighted fans in San Diego's Balboa Stadium.

Davis nipped Mais in "Player of the Game" balloting, but it was the generalship of the heady ex-Saint who made Jacques Grenier's smooth "T"-function for 432 yards.

The CIF squad marched 76 yards in six plays in the initial period with the fleet Davis slanting around left end 35 yards for the tally. The surge was topped by Mais' 23-yard strike to Santa Barbara wing Charley Green, and Davis' 20-yard end swing. Mais' conversion attempt was no good.

Davis scored on a two-yard sweep around right end on the second play of the second canto, climaxing a 36-yard drive following Bob Ferguson's 49-yard punt return.

Don Moomaw booted the extra point, and it was 13-0.

1949: Tragedy on the Highway

La Jolla's Jim Prather was a member of the Southern Section team in the College Prep All-Star game against the CIF Los Angeles City Section and set up a touchdown with a 46-yard punt return as Prather's side scored a 27-7 victory.

It was to be the last game ever for Prather, who was driving to Tucson four days later with Ellis Craddock, a Grossmont High graduate and Prather's Breitbard game teammate.

'SUICIDE DOORS'

Prather, asleep in the passenger seat, and Craddock were to enroll at the University of Arizona and turn out for football practice when they were involved in a two-car collision on U.S. 80 in Arizona between Gila Bend and Casa Grande.

Prather sustained serious injuries in the collision. Craddock and four persons in the other auto were killed.

Until they drove to St. Mary's Hospital in Tucson from their home in Pacific Beach and saw Jim in the hospital, members of Prather's family, who made the stressful, uncertain, eight-hour drive with members of Craddock's family, knew only that one person in Jim's car had survived.

Prather believed he was alive because the automobile in which he was riding was equipped with "suicide doors," which are hinged toward the back of the vehicle.

— Prather led La Jolla Vikings to 7-1 record in 1948.

Game's First All-American — DONN MOOMAW

Donn Moomaw, UCLA's giant All-American linebacker of last year, is the first All-American to come from the annual Breitbard Athletic Foundation College Prep All-Star Charity Football Game. An All-Southern California prep choice from Santa Ana High as an end, Donn played in the first game of this series in 1949, a contest in which he was voted the outstanding lineman on the field by the Foundation, one of the first groups to recognize the greatness of this 6 foot 4 inch, 220-pound athlete.

Tonight's "Lineman of the Game" award is titled the Donn Moomaw Trophy, in honor of this outstanding alumnus of the Prep All-Star Game.

Stits' Accurate Arm Proves Too Much for CIF Gridders

By DON SLOPER
Independent Sports Correspondent

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 1—The Los Angeles All-Stars evened things up with the CIF eleven tonight in the second annual College Prep All-Star game at Balboa Stadium by ganging up on their CIF counterparts, 27-7. Last year in the inaugural game of the series, the CIF squad posted an identical 27-7 victory.

Bill Stits of Narbonne received the "Star of Stars" award, voted by members of the press. Stits gained 101 yards passing.

Neither side scored in the first period, although L. A. threatened twice with drives to the 17 and 15 yard lines.

With six minutes left in the first half Belmont High end Ludwig Keehn blocked Jim Contratto's attempted punt and L. A. took over on the CIF 32 yard stripe.

The Angelenos marched to the 23 in five plays, where Stits passed to Nickoloff in the end zone.

Early in the third quarter, the CIF eleven was penalized for in-

CIF ALL-STARS TOPPLE CITY, 19-16

BY JOHN DE LA VEGA

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 31—One fatal play, a desperation pass by Los Angeles, decided the third annual Southern California High School Football game here tonight, the CIF All Stars gaining a 19-16 victory before 12,000 fans at Balboa Stadium.

With the CIF on top by 13-10 early in the fourth period, Tom Gilbert of Hollywood, back on his own 22, was trapped on an attempted pass. He got rid of the ball all right, but the 10-yard pitch was right at Jim Hanifan, Covina's all-CIF end, who was in the flat. He raced untouched for a touchdown. Primo Villanueva of Calexico tried his toe at the bonus point but it was wide, leaving CIF on top, 19-10.

Hooks Connects

The City, having floundered most of the second half, scored with three minutes to play on a beautiful pass, Roger Hooks, Washington, finding Canoga Park's Bob Heydenfeldt in the clear. The play gained 53 yards.

Just before that the CIF had muffed a golden scoring opportunity. Marv Goux of Santa Barbara recovered a fumble by Dick Nunis on the L.A. 13. But the City held for downs on the 12.

Aramis Dandoy, Torrance flash who played virtually all the game on offense and directed the T-attack in fine style, was voted the game's star of stars.

Los Angeles, playing out of a single wing as tutored by Jim Blewett, Manual Arts veteran coach, walked off the field at halftime with a 10-6 edge. After a slow start the Angelenos appeared headed somewhere but they lost the spark in the closing periods.

CIF Takes Lead

The CIF went in front after 10 minutes of the third quarter after a short punt went out on the 35. After the CIF had reached the 20 on two plays, L.A. stiffened. But Dandoy went to the air to net a first down on the 8 by passing to Bob Long of South Pasadena. Three plays later Jewell Owens of Fullerton scored from the 1.

The kicking toe of Sam Tsagalakis, Manual Arts, was the difference between the teams in the opening half. He came in to kick the extra point that gave Los Angeles a 7-6 lead on the last play of the first quarter.

Then, halfway through the second, he came in for a field goal try from the 23-yard line. From a slight angle, Sam the Toe applied same and the ball arched right between the up-rights. The ball just cleared the crossbar. Orin Allen, Alhambra end, managed to touch the ball just as it was booted but it kept right on sailing. That made it L.A. 10-6, and neither team threatened seriously the remainder of the half.

CIF First

The CIF scored first, the third time it got the ball, with a 70-yard advance in 8 plays. Little Ralph Kubota, Compton's 138-pounder, scooted 40 yards around end to the Los Angeles 30. Aramis Dandoy, Torrance, and Kubota pitched 7-yard passes to Charley Powell, San Diego wingman, and three others runs put the ball on the Los Angeles 11. Dandoy skirted end to the 1 and on the next down sneaked across. Primo Villanueva of Calexico attempted the odd digit but it was wide.

Los Angeles took the next kickoff and covered the necessary 65 yards in 9 tries to tie things. A 34-yard pass play, Mike Bell, Belmont, to Joe Link, Fremont, put the ball on the 19. The City located a soft spot between right guard and tackle and hit it four straight times. Tim Lyon, Canoga Park, scored from the 1. And Tsagalakis did the rest.

Casey to Receive
'Star of Stars' Award

Triple-threat Mike Casey, a sawed-off backfield bombshell from Brawley, will receive his 1952 "Star of Stars" award from the Breitbard Athletic Foundation tonight as one of the highlights of the 1953 Southern California College Prep All-Star Charity Football Game.

Casey, now a Cal sophomore and a leading candidate for a starting quarterback berth on Pappy Waldorf's Bear varsity this fall, was voted the outstanding performer in last year's all-star game by newspapermen covering the contest.

Actually, Mike's selection was made easy by the greatness of his performance. A little guy by football standards, the 5 foot 9 inch, 165 pound flash pitched for three touchdowns and scored twice himself in the rout of the All-Los Angeles eleven, 47 to 7. In all, he completed 10 of 18 passes for 227 yards and the two tallies.

Previous winners of the "Star of Stars" award: 1949, Charlie Davis, San Diego High halfback; 1950, Bill Stits, Narbonne High (L.A.) halfback; 1951, Aramis Dandoy, Torrance High quarterback.

Metro Stars Shine as CIF D

By A Times-Advocate Staff Writer

SAN DIEGO (Special) — Five former all-Metro league players, led by Harry Sykes of Coronado, saw action Friday night at Balboa stadium as the all-Southern California eleven trotted the all-stars from Los Angeles, 47-7, in the fourth annual southern California college prep football classic.

While Mike Casey of Brawley started at quarterback for the So-Cals and was named the outstanding player of the game, Sykes took over long enough to engineer one touchdown.

Bud Smith, Sweetwater guard, was the only Metro player to be in the starting lineup, but the other boys saw plenty of action. Larry Holcombe, tackle from San Dieguito, was a standout on defense as was end Ted Granger and guard Dick Main from Sweetwater.

Casey was easily the star of the game as he figured in five of So-Cal's seven touchdowns and booted five extra points. After Casey had passed to Frank Johnson of San Diego high for 30 yards to the LA one yard line, the Brawley ace plunged over for the first touchdown. His conversion try was wide.

Casey tallied the second TD on one of the many spread plays used during the contest as he skirted left end for fifteen yards and the six points. His conversion split the uprights to put the So-Cals ahead, 13-0.

Los Angeles scored their only touchdown late in the first period when Bill McCormick of Los Angeles high took a kickoff and raced 93 yards thru the Southern Cal defense for a six pointer. The placement was good.

The So-Cals tallied their third TD in the second quarter as Casey passed to Larry Ross of Monrovia in a play that covered 48 yards. With Casey and Sykes running the team in the third stanza, the So-Cals turned on the steam to tally four touchdowns.

Casey passed to Jim Carmichael of Inglewood for 26 yards and a TD for the first tally of the quarter. Sykes culminated a 60 yard drive by prancing over from the nine. Less than three plays later, the Southern Californians scored again, this time on a 30 yard runback of an intercepted pass by Dick Fulks of Monrovia.

It was Casey's turn again, and from the usual spread, he pitched to end Darryl Rogers of Long Beach Jordan for 32 yards and the last score of the game. Casey converted after three of the scores to bring the final count to 47-7.

All-LA Eleven Comes From Behind to Beat All-SCIF Stars, 24-13

By RON KENNEY
Times-Advocate Sports Editor

SAN DIEGO — The All-Los Angeles high school stars had to come from behind twice here Wednesday night to win the fifth annual College Prep charity football game, 24-13, before 16,000 spectators. But it was left to the all-SCIF eleven to supply the game with the "Star of Stars." It was the second LA victory in the series.

Art Luppino, ability halfback from La Jolla, was the quartet of the SoCal's spread formation and scored both touchdowns for the Southerners. For his effort, Luppino was acclaimed the outstanding player of the game. Last year's award went to Mike Casey, quarterback from Brawley on the all-SCIF team. Casey was presented with his trophy here Wednesday night during halftime ceremonies.

The Don Moosman award for the top lineman of the game was presented for the first time. It went to Tom Fletcher, 285-pound tackle from Los Angeles high.

Big Don Shinnick, San Pedro fullback, and Jack Kopol of Fairfax high, sparked the Los Angeles attack. Shinnick bulled his way for two touchdowns and Kopol intercepted two passes, one a 25-yard runback for a TD in the fourth quarter and another in the same period that set up a score.

The SCIFers recovered a fumble of a punt by LA's Don Armstrong on the Los Angeles 24-yard line in the first period. In four plays, the SoCals had punched over the first score of the game as Luppino barged for five yards around right end on the TD play. John Core of Compton converted, making the score 7-0.

Rich Gehring, all-Metro end from Escondido, got into the game in the last three minutes, and participated in four offensive plays. Two other Metro players, Sawwater's John Nash and Chula Vista's Don Cameron, saw action. Nash went in with Gehring while Cameron played intermittently throughout the game.

Score by quarters:
 Los Angeles — 7 0 0 12—24
 SCIF — 0 0 0 6—13

Scoring: Los Angeles — TD: Shinnick, 2; Kopol, Berry.
 SCIF — TD: Luppino, 2; PAT: Core.

DOUG DICK
... Named '54 Game Star

Redondo Back to Get 'Star of Stars' Trophy

Douglas Dick, 190-pound halfback from Redondo Beach, will receive his 1954 "Star of Stars" award from the Breitbard Athletic Foundation tonight as one of the highlights of the 1955 Southern California College Prep All-Star Charity Football Game.

Doug was voted the outstanding performer in the 1954 game, won by the Southern California team of which he was a member, 20-6. Those casting ballots were local and visiting newspapermen covering the all-star contest.

The big Redondo star totaled 66 yards in seven carries for the CIF'ers, averaging 9.4 yards. He also added two extra points via placement.

Previous winners of the "Star of Stars" award:
1949—Charlie Davis, San Diego High halfback.
1950—Bill Stits, Narbonne High halfback.
1951—Aramis Dandoy, Torrance High quarterback.

1952—Mike Casey, Brawley High quarterback.

City Grid Team Bows To CIF, 20-6

The all-Los Angeles city high school stars, trying their hand at running the Split "T", was just no match for the highly talented all-CIF gridders in last night's RealHaw! Athletic Foundation football game at Balboa Stadium.

The final score was CIF 20, Los Angeles city 6 in a game that was dominated from start to finish by the victors before 14,000 fans, half of which were service men.

San Fernando Valley athletes played in this sixth annual charity clash, five on the city team and one on the winning club. Bill Cleary, Ron Wolverton, Don Shaffer, Chuck Williams and Dick Windham played for the Los Angeles eleven while Bill Howard of John Burroughs was on the All-CIF team. Howard hauled in a pass on the second CIF touchdown drive for a 14-yard gain.

The CIF struck quickly in the first quarter for two touchdowns and then added another just as the gun ended the third quarter for a 20-0 lead. A magnificent catch by Jerome Ott on a ball thrown by Quarterback Bill Simonian gave the city boys their lone score. The losers couldn't get untracked with their Split "T" plays.

Doug Dick was voted the star of stars after the game with Dave Peterson the outstanding lineman who will receive the Donn Moomaw Trophy. The city team was coached by Johnny Sanders of North Hollywood High and Roy Jae of Eagle Rock.

Star Samohi Guard Picked by Judges As Top Lineman

Again tonight, the Breitbard Athletic Foundation will officially recognize the outstanding lineman on the field during this prep all-star football classic. The top line performer, in the opinion of a panel of judges, will receive the Donn Moomaw Trophy.

The Moomaw Trophy, showing a lineman tackling a ball-carrier, will be awarded for the third time tonight. Previous winners are Ron Fletcher, Los Angeles High tackle, 1953, and Dave Peterson, Santa Monica High guard, 1954.

Voting for the Moomaw Trophy will be announced prior to the end of tonight's game, although the actual presentation will not be made until a later date.

Peterson has been invited by the Foundation to be present tonight to receive his award from last year. His twin brother, Dan, a center, also played for the All-Southern Cal team in the 1954 contest.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 31 — Dominating play throughout, the CIF footballers scored a sound 23-0 victory over Los Angeles here tonight in the seventh annual Breitbard Athletic Foundation benefit game before some 12,000 fans in Balboa Stadium.

The CIFers, who took a 5-2 lead in the series, commanded the ball most of the way with a solid ground attack led by John Adams, 240-pound fullback from San Diego Hoover, Tony Ortega, fleet halfback from Cathedral, and Rex Johnston, another hotshot half from Compton.

How They Scored

The touchdowns were made by Adams, on a 2-yard smash at the line in the first quarter, Ortega, who scooted 42 yards in the second stanza, and George Ruddy, a halfback from Mt. Carmel who returned an intercepted pass 55 yards in the second canto. A fourth-quarter safety completed the scoring.

Ortega, who is headed for SC, was named star of stars by the press corps. He gained a total of 113 yards in seven carries for a net average of 14.4. Adams gained 84 in 10 attempts and Johnston picked up 30 in five tries.

Hendi Ancich from San Pedro, who played a steady game for L.A., especially on defense, was named the game's outstanding lineman.

Neither side passed much. The CIF, with Lee Grosscup of Santa Monica making good on four out of 10 flips for 92 yards, completed six out of 16. The City caught two out of eight for 43 yards.
