

SCOTT RADINSKY, SIMI VALLEY PITCHER, WINS MVP VOTE IN 4-A DIV. BASEBALL FOR 1986 SEASON.....

FOR RELEASE: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25TH ... PMS  PLEASE HONOR RELEASE DATE!!!

Scott Radinsky, 6-3 195-pound senior southpaw who pitched the semi-valley pioneers to the Marmonte League title and to the semi-finals of the 4-A Division playoffs, has been voted 1986 Player of the Year by members of the First Interstate Bank - Amateur Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles Prep Selection Board. A co-player of the year in Ventura County, Radinsky was drafted in the third round and signed by the White Sox.

A team ranked tops in the nation for much of the season, Simi Valley wound up 26-4 after suffering a 6-5 loss to Esperanza in the playoff semi-finals. Scott Radinsky was responsible for over half (14) of his team's wins, while losing but once. He compiled a 1.18 era over 100 2/3 innings, allowing 17 earned runs. He costed four one-hitters and five two-hitters, while striking out 180.

Empire League champion Esperanza defeated Fontana (number three team in the Citrus Belt League) 9-3 for the 4-A title. Esperanza bested Huntington Beach (7-0), San Geronio (4-2), Rowland (7-2) and Simi Valley (6-5) before meeting Fontana for the title.

REED OLMSTEAD, BLAIR HIGH'S HEAVY-HITTING PITCHER-FIRST BASEMAN, TOP 1-A DIV. PLAYER FOR '86

FOR RELEASE: FRIDAY, JUNE 20TH...PMS  PLEASE HONOR RELEASE DATE!!!

BLAIR HIGH SCHOOL PLACED FOURTH IN THE RIO HONDO LEAGUE THIS YEAR, BUT YOU CERTAINLY COULDN'T FAULT PITCHER-FIRST BASEMAN REED OLMSTEAD FOR THIS. AND FIRST INTERSTATE BANK - AMATEUR ATHLETIC FOUNDATION SELECTION COMMITTEE MEMBERS CERTAINLY AGREED, NAMING THE HEAVY-HITTING, 6-4 195-POUND SENIOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR IN 1-A DIVISION BASEBALL FOR 1986.

Olmstead pitched in eight games this past season, winning four and losing one. He had a 1.11 era with 76 strikeouts over 47 innings. He had five complete games. When not on the mound, Olmstead was at first base. He batted a robust 516, fielded 1.000, had 36 RBIs and seven homers. He was the Rio Hondo League player of the Year.

Gladstone, the number three Montview League entry in the playoffs, won the division title 7-6 over Baldwin Park in eight innings. Gladstone defeated Genevieve (13-0), Yucaipa (7-1) & Montclair Prep (4-2) along the title path. He Gladiators, who finished 20-7-1 this past season, had lost twice to Baldwin Park (the Montview League champions) during the regular season. Gladstone's winning run to win the championship came on a Baldwin Park wild pitch, following a missed tag in a run-down attempt at the plate.

First Interstate Bank - Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles awards will be presented to all 1-A Division All-Stars at Dodger Stadium on Wednesday, Aug. 14 prior to the LOS ANGELES DODGERS - HOUSTON ASTROS major league game. Presentations will be made on the field prior to the game, with Dodger players, selection committee members and school administrators taking part in the ceremonies.
