ROBINSON, KRUMPHOLZ HONORED BY POLO COACHES

Jed Robinson, who captained Downey's water polo team to a 24-1 season and the CIF championship, and Bruce Krumpholz, the lone senior among Corona del Mar's 18-4-1 quarter-finalists, were named co-players of the year for the 1972 season by the water polo coaches, it has been announced.

The "All-CIF" selections were made by the coaches, and the session was directed by Frank Brooks, president of the Southern California Aquatics Federation.

Robinson had 65 goals in the well-balanced Downey attack and was the top-percentage shooter for the Vikings, firing at a better than 56 per cent clip.

Krumpholz had 112 goals on the season for Cliff Hooper's youthful Sea Kings, hitting 54 per cent of his shots. He was also an ace sprinter, winning more than 90 per cent of his attempts. He was named second-team as a junior.

Named coach of the year by his peers was veteran mentor Bill Sexton of Downey, who last won a championship 10 seasons ago, but has had teams make it at least as far as the quarter-finals every year in between.
