SPECIAL RELEASE

UNITED SAVINGS-HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

RAYMOND LEWIS, VERBUM DEI GUARD, NAMED TOP CIF "AAAA" DASKETDALL PLAYER FOR "71 SEASON FOR RELEASE: WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 24 and Thurs. a.m. ast year Raymond Lewis led the Verbum Dei Eagles to the "AAA" CIF Divisional Chempionship, 77-69 over Fermin Lasuen High School. Raymond Lewis was named divisional player of the year for his efforts. This season the Eagles were moved into what was supposed to be tougher competition...the "AAAA" division of the CIF. It made no difference to the Eagles, as they romped over all opposition and bested Crescenta Valley in the "AAAA" title decider, 51-42....again led by star guard Raymond Lewis. It took the United Savings/Helms Board less elapsed time than a sneeze to name Raymond Lewis "AAAA" Player of the Year for 1971....without opposition.

Winning player of the year laurels two years running in CIF play is no mean task, as evidenced by the fact that only one player -- Bob Bedell of Bell Gardens in 1961-62 -- in the 34-year history of the United Savings/Helms Board selections has been named for consecutive player of the year honors.

As indicated above, the Verbum Dei Eagles were again the class of CIF Southern Section basketball in 1971. They were Santa Fe League champions, charging through a season which saw them lose but a single ball game in 29 starts. In the playoffs they whipped Centennial by 29 points (96-67) in the first round; destroyed Millikan by 32 points (72-40); were tested by Warren, a team that took them to two overtimes before losing 56-49; jumped on Pasadena in the semi-final 78-55 and then displayed remarkable defense in winning the crown from Grescenta Valley, 51-42.

For having been named 1971 United Savings/Helms All-Southern California Board of Basketball Player of the Year Ray Lewis will be recipient of the Board's MVP medallion award, which will be presented to Ray at the 34th annual awards program to be held on Saturday morning, April 17th at the Culver City Memorial Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. All players named for both Los Angeles City and Southern Section CIF honors will be invited to receive their awards at this time.

Not the least of 1971 basketball excitement in southland prepranks was the remarkable record of Crescenta Valley High School and its 6-foot, 7-inch forward Bill Boyd. The Falcons were 29-0 going into the final game with Verbum Dei, having met all comers and decisively dispatched them....with these awesome playoff results as evidence: 49 points over Pioneer in the first round of the playoffs (81-32); 17 over a good Loyola team (80-63); 14 over Servite (76-62) and 23 over tough Torrance in the semi-finals (79-56).

And out of Crescenta Valley's great season came a new Southern Section career scoring champion...Bill Boyd, son of the Trojan coach. In three seasons at Foothill H.S. and one at Crescenta Valley, Bill scored 2,144 points, 227 more than the previous high water mark of 1,917 points by Torrance High's Bart Johnson. Other career highs include Paul Westphal (Aviation H.S. - 1,904), Bill Kilmer (Citrus H.S. 1,901), Steve Patterson (Santa Maria H.S. - 1,865), Brian Heublein (Pasadena Poly H.S. - 1,859), John Rudometkin (Santa Maria H.S. - 1,805) and Freddis Goss (Compton H.S. - 1,771). Kilmer, Heublein, Rudometkin and Goss set their marks in three seasons of play.

Five schools are represented by more than one player in the '71 selections. Verbum Dei led the parade with three players, while runner-up Crescenta Valley placed two players. Warren, Pasadena and Santa Monica also landed a pair of performers. Four first-team picks are back from honors received last year. Ray Lewis and Biff Burrell are the two first teamers returning to this year's lineup.

Players will be recipients of scroll awards, with medallions toing to those named for player of the year honors. All honored boys till receive special AMF-VOIT Basketball awards, presented over the last 21 years by Loyd Tutor of the AMF-VOIT Company.

UNITED SAVINGS-HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

WEST COVINA'S JIM BOGDANOWICZ NAMED "AAA"

BASKETBALL PLAYER OF YEAR FOR 1971 SEASON
FOR RELEASE: THURSDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 25 and Friday a.m.

DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO MARCH 25 p.m.

Dos Pueblos High School of Santa Barbara captured team honors in "AAA" Division CIF basketball for the 1971 season, but it remained for West Covina's star senior forward Jim Bogdanowicz to win individual honors as United Savings/Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Southern California Board of Athletics met in annual session to select its all-star basketball teams.

Coach Barry Porter's number one performer, Jim Bogdanowicz led his team to a perfect 14-0 league season, being honored as the Sierra League's MVP. Jim also captured other individual honors along the 1971 hardwood season trail, including "most valuable" in the always outstanding Covina Tournament. As the unanimous choice as MVP in Sierra League action, Bogdanowicz led the Spartans to 27 straight triumphs in 1971, before falling to Bellflower (46-44) in double over-time in quarter-final action of the "AAA" Division playoffs.

West Covina defeated Santa Maria (75-68), Magnolia (85-51) and then ran afoul of the Bellflower Buccaneers, a team which went on to meet Dos Pueblos in the "AAA" decider, losing 49-40.

Dos Pueblos, among the newer schools in Southern Section CIF athletic action, climaxed a most successful 27-2 season with comparatively easy wins in the playoffs. The Chargers handled Newbury Park (64-54), Artesia (65-53), Fermin Lasuen (69-57) and Katella (64-50) before knocking over Bellflower (49-40) for the title.

Jim Bogdanewicz, the "AAA" Division MVP and coach Don Volpi, coach of the champion Dos Pueblos Chargers will receive special recognition at the 34th annual All-Southern California Board of Basketball Awards Program to be held on Saturday morning April 17 at the Culver City Veterans Memorial Auditorium. Jim will receive the coveted United Savings/Helms medallion award, while coach Volpi will be recipient of the coaches silver tumbler, emblematic of championship coaching performance. The awards program, to which southland college coaches will be invited to take part, will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the Culver City Auditorium, followed by a buffet luncheon.

Twenty-five southland high schools are represented on this season's "AAA" Division team. West Covina led all other schools, placing three players on the three units selected. Champion Dos Pueblos, Los Altos and Bellflower are represented by two players.

Two repeaters are back off last year's first "AAA" team. Fermin Lasuen's 6-7, 190-pound forward, called by his coach "the best forward in California" was a near unanimous choice for a second straight first team berth and a strong contender for MVP in "AAA" voting. Bob wound up with a three-year scoring mark of 1,508 points, while hauling down 1,533 career rebounds.

Arroyo Grande's Danny Lintner, actually a first team "AA" pick in 1970, is the other first-teamer returning. Danny's coach Mario Pecile calls him, "a super player, skilled in all areas of play....a unanimous choice for all-league."

Almost half (13) of the 30-man "AAA" Division team stands 6-5 or better, led in the heighth department by San Bernardino's Remel Diggs...a very physical 6-8 and 198 pounds. Remel is a great college prospect according to his coach, Richard Adair.

AMP-VOIT BASKETBALLS WILL AGAIN BE PRESENTED AT APRIL 17 PROGRAM

As they have done over the past 21 years, the AMF-VOIT Company will present special miniature basketballs to all honored players on April 17th. Loyd Tutor, AMF-VOIT executive who has seen to it that his company has remembered southland honored athletes over this lengthy period, will be on hand at the Culver City Veteran's Auditorium to present the balls to the all-star team performers. As has been the case since 1938, all players will receive framed scrolls from All-Southern California Board of

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM, SAT. APRIL 17TH

The 34th annual All-Southern California Board of Basketball Awards Program, homoring both Los Angeles City and All-Southern Section CIF all-star team players honoring both Los Angeles City and All-Southern Section CIF all-star team players, will be held on Saturday morning, April 17th at 10:30 a.m. This year's awards program will be held at the Culver City Veteran's Memorial Auditorium, located at the corner of Culver Blvd. and Overland. Scroll awards will be presented to all lonored athletes, while players of the year will receive special medallion awards.

As it has done over the past 21 years, the AMT-VOIT Company will again have miniature basketballs for all honored players. Loyd Tutor, long-time supporter of youth activities, will represent the AMT-VOIT Company at the awards program.

SPECIAL RELEASE

UNITED SAVINGS-HELMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

DAVE MEYERS (SONORA) & LARRY REYNOLDS (LUTHERAN) NAB BASKETBALL'S GOLD RING

FOR RELEASE: FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 26th and Sat. a.m.

Two of Southern California's outstanding high school basketball performers -- Dave Meyers, 6-7, 200-pound forward from "AA"

Division champion Sonora High School and Lutheran High's senior guard Larry Reynolds off Olympic League champion and "A" Division semi-finalists -- have been named players of the year in their respective divisions by members of United Savings/Helms Athletic Foundation All-Southern California Board of Basketball.

David Meyers, who averaged 22.7 points per game for the Sonora Raiders in 1971, carried his team to the Orange League title and into the "AA".playoffs....where, four games later they emerged as "AA" champions.

The Raiders whipped Sierra Vista (96-67), Palm Springs (59-42), Miraleste (75-72) and Central of El Centro (71-62) in the finale. And it was Meyers who was the dominant force in these outings, as he was in Orange League play. Coaches were moved to exlaim about Dave.... "outstanding performer" ... "outstanding" ... "great on ability" ... "great ball player" ... "league's unanimous MVP" ... and the United Savings/Helms Board was quick to agree and pass along "AA" Division MVP honors to the Sonora senior.

Lutheran's Larry Reynolds, a high scoring guard (19.8 point average in 28 games) who led the Olympic League champions to the semifinals of the "A-Small School" Division playoffs was a sparkplug performer during 1971. The Lions won the league title from two teams which advanced to the quarter-finals (Harvard) and finals and title winners (Cheminade) of the division playoffs. Ed Reitz, Lutheran coach, commented on Reynolds' ability.... "should be strongly considered as Player of the Year...was league MVP." Enough said. The Board strongly considered Larry and the honor was bestowed forthwith.

34TH ANNUAL AWARDS PROGRAM ON APRIL 17TH AT CULVER CITY VETERAN'S MEMORIAL AUD...

All players named for all-star team honors from "AA" and "A-Small School" Divisions will receive their awards at the 34th annual All-Southern California Board of Basketball awards program at the Culver City Veteran's Memorial Auditorium on Saturday morning, April 17 at 10:30 a.m. Players of the Year Dave Meyers and Larry Reynolds, along with division title-winning coaches Paul Bush of Sonora and Bob Vogelsang of Chaminade, will be recipients of medallion and silver tumbler awards for their playing and coaching achievements.

Two ten-man all-star teams were selected in both "AA" and "A-Small School" Divisions for 1971. There was one repeater from last year's honor teams on the "AA" selections, as Palm Springs' Larry Holland, a first-team pick one year ago, was named to the second "AA" unit. Desert's Bob Thomson repeated on the "A-Small School" first team.

Lower classmen are sprinkled through both divisional teams, with one sophomore, Murphy's Terry Tate, receiving "AA" first team honors. Ontario, Murphy, Miraleste and title-winning Sonora are represented by two players on the honor teams, while Fillmore, Desert, Brethren and title-winning Chaminade have two honored players on the "A-Small School" teams.

All high school all-star teams honored by United Savings/ Helms Athletic Foundation are teams selected by All-Southern California Board of Athletics. The selection board is comprised of sports journalists from throughout Southern California who have expended their energies in the interest of high school athletes since 1937.

Over the past 34 years, thousands of deserving youngsters throughout the southland have been honored through the efforts of dedicated writers who have worked many long hours to see that the All-Southern California selection board continues its operation.
