Both Cliff Pruitt and Michael Holton will receive traditional bronze medallion awards for their '79 hardcourt heroics at the 42nd annual All-Southern California Board of Basketball Awards Program at Magic Mountain Park on Saturday morning, March 31, at 10:30 am. This will mark the 6th year that the good people of Magic Mountain Park will host the basketball players and coaches of Southern California and share in the awards ceremonies.

Players, coaches, parents, high school administrators, collegiate coaches and members of the selection board will take part in the festivities, as Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation will present each honored player with a beautiful framed certificate.

AMF VOIT BASKETBALLS TO ALL HONORED PLAYERS

The AMF VOIT Company has again thoughtfully offered to present each allstar with one of its coveted basketballs. AMF VOIT has made these awards to southland basketball players over the past 25-30 years, for which the coaches and players are most grateful.

Thirty-two players representing some 21 high schools have been selected on the 1979 4-A all-stars. Title-winning Verbum Dei led the parade with four players named, while L.B. Poly, Pasadena, Morningside, Inglewood, Oxmard, San Marcos, Marina and Compton placed two players each.

Five players, headed by MVF Cliff Pruitt, are back from last year's all-stars. Ray Whiting, Long Beach Poly's 6-8, 210-pound front-liner, is back on the first team. Bryon Scott, Morningside, was elevated to this year's first team from the '78 second squad along with Pruitt. Mark Sewald, Bishop Montgomery, and Loyola's Cecil Morris were third-team picks one year ago.

On its way to the 4-A crown the Verbum Dei Eagles beat Culver City (60-49), Ocean View (89-53), Crescenta Valley (87-57), Morningside (84-78) and LB Poly (62-47). Five lower classmen are named including San Marcos! sophomore Jon Korfas.

MVPs & HONORED ALL-STARS TO RECEIVE AWARDS AT MAGIC MT. ON SAT., MARCH 31st

Players of the Year Leon Wood and Bert Banta will be among the honored guests at Magic Mountain Park to receive Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation awards for their 1979 basketball heroics. The program — the 42nd annual — will take place in the Park's SHOWCASE THEATER with honored all-star team players, coaches, parents and high school administrators taking part in the ceremonies.

Collegiate coaches will also be invited to take part in the presentation of awards...medallions for the players of the year and fremed scrolls for the all-stars.

AMF VOIT BASKETBALLS TO ALL HONORED PLAYERS

As part of the program and as they have done over the past 25-odd years, the AMF VOIT Company will again provide basketballs for all the honored players.

St. Monica, which finished behind Bosco Tech in the Santa Fe League in '79, placed only Leon Wood on the divisional all-star squad. The Mariners defeated Norte Vista (70-65), Santa Ynez (64-63), Montclair Prep (82-67) and Valley Christian (89-84) before winning the crown (70-65) from St. Joseph of Santa Maria.

Four 1-A first team performers from last season find themselves back in '79. Leon Wood (also a 1st team AA member in 1977), Craig Fuller, Chris Klekas and Ray Owsley are the first teamers back. John Vermeer and Mike Smith from Valley Christian moved up to the first team from the second squad in '78.

Santa Clara, Banning and Valley Christian placed two players on the honor teams. Montclair Prep's outstanding freshman, Keith London (6-5 and 215-pounds), was a first-team pick...a rare happening.

On its way to the Small Schools title (for the second straight year) Pasadena Poly bettered Masada (87-63), Coast Union (59-48), Riverside Christian (65-53) and Orange Lutheran (50-49) before edging Chadwick in the finals 46-44. Two players return to the Small Schools Division team...Paul Champlin of Chadwick and Tim Cresto of Villanova. Finalists Pasadena Poly and Chadwick placed two players or the one divisional team.

Twenty-six high achools are represented on the two divisional teams, as 31 players were honored. Of this number, five are lower classmen.
