FOR RELEASE: SAT. APRIL 7th AMs

LISA LESLIE, MORNINGSID HIGH SCHOOL'S 6-5 SENIOR CENTER, REPEATS AS DIVISION I GIRLS BASKETBALL PLAYER OF YEAR FOR '90

DIVISION I GIRLS BASKETBALL IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA WAS A RE-PLAY OF THE 1989 SEASON, AS LISA LESLIE LED HER MORNINGSID MONARCHS TO THE SOUTHERN SECTION, SOUTHERN CAL AND STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS. IT WAS, THEREFORE, NO SURPRISE THAT THE FIRST INTERSTATE BANK - AMATEUR ATHLETIC FOUNDATION'S BOARD OF SPORTSWRITERS NAMED LESLIE PLAYER OF THE YEAR FOR THE SECOND TIME.

Morningside coach Frank Scott calls his star center "a remarkable player and individual." And off her three-time appearance on All-Southern Section all-star teams, she is certainly all of that!

Leslie finished the regular season 4th on the section scoring charts with a 26.1 point average and 21st in rebounding, averaging 15 per game. Last year, Leslie averaged 25 points, 14 rebounds and seven blocks over a 33-game season.

Morningside wound up its championship season 32-3 and was the only Southern California girl's team to leave Oakland with a state title.

Morningside defeated Lynwood, San Gabriel Valley League champs, 54-48 for the 5-AA SS crown. They then whipped Washington (L.A. City Section) 61-45 for the Southern Cal title. In the state championship encounter with Berkeley, Leslie scored 35 points, had 12 rebounds and seven blocks in the Monarch's 67-56 victory.

AIMEE McDANIEL, BREA-OLINDA HIGH SCHOOL, REPEATS AS DIVISION III GIRLS BASKETBALL PLAYER OF YEAR FOR '90

AIMEE McDANIEL, WHO LED THE BREA-OLINDA WILDCATS TO THE STATE DIVISION THREE TITLE LAST YEAR WITH A 32-2 RECORD AND CARRIED THEM INTO THE TITLE GAME AGAIN THIS YEAR UNBEATEN (33-0), HAS BEEN NAMED THE OUTSTANDING PLAYER IN HER DIVISION FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR. SELECTIONS WERE MADE BY THE FIRST INTERSTATE BANK - AMATEUR ATHLETIC FOUNDATION'S ALL-SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BOARD OF ATHLETICS.

Unfortunately the Wildcats had their 55-game win streak ended by Placer High School of Auburn, 54-43, even though McDaniel had 22 points. "Aimee played like she was not going to let us lose, but they (Placer) took away the things we wanted to do," stated Brea-Olinda coach Mark Trakh.

The Southern Section 3-AA champion, Brea-Olinda defeated Bay League titlist Palos Verdes 50-33 in the Section Championships. Palos Verdes came back in the Southern California Playoffs to meet Brea-Olinda again in the finals, losing this time by one point, 47-46.

Eight players return from last year's division all-stars, including two-time Division III Player of the Year Aimee McDaniel. Nine lower-class performers have been named including four sophomores and one freshman.

All players named for all-star team honors will be recipients of beautiful framed scroll awards from First Interstate Bank - Amateur Athletic Foundation of Los Angeles. Title-winning coaches and Players of the Year will also be recognized with special awards. ... m o r e ...

FOR RELEASE: WED. APRIL 4th AMs

AMY AND ANNA McCONNELL, ST. JOSEPH (SANTA MARIA), VOTED CO-PLAYERS OF YEAR IN DIVISION IV BASKETBALL.....

AMY AND ANNA McCONNELL, TWIN STARS OF COACH ED TORRES' ST. JOSEPH OF SANTA MARIA KNIGHTS, HAVE BEEN NAMED CO-PLAYERS OF THE YEAR IN DIVISION IV
GIRLS BASKETBALL BY MEMBERS OF THE FIRST INTERSTATE BANK - AMATEUR ATHLETIC FOUNDATION OF LOS ANGELES BOARD OF SPORTSWRITERS. ANNUAL HARD COURT SELEC-TIONS WERE MADE RECENTLY IN CULVER CITY.

Both Amy and Anna are repeaters from last year's Division IV first team when they led the Knights to the 2-AA Division title over Morro Bay 55-45.
The twins took St. Joseph a step further this season, as the Knights advanced through the Southern Section 2-A playoffs (80-50 over Valley Christian of Cerritos) and the Southern Cal tournament (60-43 over Sierra High of the Central Section) and on to Oakland.

At the Oakland Coliseum the Knights lost to Northern California Champion Campolindo of Moraga 41-40, mounting a second-half rally that almost caught Campolindo.

There are 13 lower class players on this year's Division IV Team, including Co-Payers of the Year Amy and Anna McConnell who are juniors. There are eight repeaters from last year's honor teams.

All players named for 1990 all-star team hones will be recognized with framed scroll awards from First Interstate Bank - Amateur Athletic Foundation, with title-winning coaches and MVPs also receiving awards.

While the Lady Knights from St. Joseph dominated play in their division this season, coach Jo Ann Reck's Santa Ynez Pirates marched through the 2-AA Division pretty much as they pleased.

Champions of the Frontier League, Santa Ynez defeated Morro Bay 44-41 for the Southern Section 2-AA title, advancing to the Southern Cal Tournament. The Pirates got over Wasco of the Central Section 70-47 in first-round action, but dropped a hard-fought decision to Sierra High of Tollhouse 61-59. Santa Ynez ended its season 23-4.

The Amateur Athletic Foundation has been selecting high school all-star teams since 1937. All teams named by the Foundation's board of sports journalists are on file in the Paul Ziffren Sports Resource Center Library.
