ALL-SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM FOR 1962 SEASON - LARGE SCHOOLS

FOR RELEASE: THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 3 and Friday a.m.

* * * DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO JAN. 3, p.m.

To the surprise of absolutely no one, Loyola High School's sensational tailback Steve Grady who led the Cubs to their first-ever CIF Football championship in 1962, was acclaimed Southern California's grid performer of the year by vote of the Helms All-Southern California Board of Football when the annual all-star team selections were made at Helms Hall recently.

This marks the second year in a row that a Loyola player has been selected top player, as Paul Horgan was honored last year. Al Pollard, named player of the year in 1945 and 1946, is the only other Loyola gridder to be chosen for top player acclaim from the Loyola High campus.

A 6', 203-pound power-running tailback in coach Lew Stueck's single-wing formation, Steve Grady re-wrote all the grid records at Loyola this year. He has scored more points (217), gained more yards in total offense (2,835), carried the ball more (319), scored more touchdowns (35 in 12 games), and gained more yards rushing (2,097) than any player in Loyola grid history. This includes the fabled Al Pollard, two-time player of the year in 1945-46 and last year's CIF top performer Paul Horgan.

Grady scored 152 points during the regular season and added 65 more in four playoff encounters. The Loyola Cubs defeated Bellflower (45-7), North Torrance (20-13), Glendale (7-0) and Anaheim (14-3). In the finale, it was Grady who scored all but one of the Cubs' points and was named "player of the game" for his efforts.

Steve Grady will be presented with his special medal award from All-Southern California Board of Football at the 26th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, Jan. 19 at 10:30 a.m. All players named for All-Southern California all-star team honors will be on hand to receive their special framed scroll awards.

Thirty southland high schools are represented on this year's honor teams, with Loyola and Glendale placing three players and Anaheim and Centennial landing two each. The champion Cubs placed player of the year Grady in the first-team backfield and tackle Tim Hornbecker in the line. Glendale, defeated by Loyola in the semi-finals, 7-0, also placed a back, Paul Nyquist, and a lineman, tackle Bob Gilleran, on the first team. Anaheim placed end Ty Salness on the first team and tackle Roy Luttrull on the second unit. Centennial landed end Emmitt Littleton on the second squad and quarterback Karl Dawkins on the third team.

Only one lower classman found his way onto the 1962 all-star team selections. Santa Monica's ace guard-linebacker, Rick Bassler, is not only the smallest player on the three units, but he also has the distinction of being the only junior to be selected for honors.

Gary Walker, quarterback of the Santa Fe League champion Bishop Amat Lancers, became the only CIF all-star team repeater among large school players when his team was moved up into "AAA" Division play. Walker was a first-team "small schools" selection in 1961. The Lancers marched through "AAA" playoff competition until they reached the final game against South Pasadena. In a bitter battle, the Tigers from South Pasadena downed the determined Lancers, 27-20.

Besides the players, coaches will also be on the receiving end of awards on January 19th. Coaches Lew Stueck (Loyola) and Ray Solari (South Pasadena) will be recipients of silver tumbler awards for leading their teams to division titles.

ALL-SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM FOR 1962 SEASON - SMALL SCHOOLS

FOR RELEASE: SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1963 and after,.....

* * * DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO JAN. 5 a.m.

Ken Martin, the pride of Hemet High School which won the De Anza League football championship for 1962, was named Southern California (small schools) High School Football Player of the Year by members of the Helms All-Southern California Board of Football when the board met at the Helms Athletic Foundation to make its annual gridiron all-star team selections. Some 26 southland high schools are represented on this year's squad — three teams of 12 players each — picked from among those schools which played in leagues bracketed in the "small schools", "A" and "AA" divisions of the C.I.F. playoffs. The Helms Board first picked "small schools" all-star teams in football in 1951.

Robert Baiz's Fermin-Lasuen Padres placed the most representatives on the three honor teams, with four players, three of them on the first team. Lasuen won the "AA" division playoffs, downing runner-up St. Monica's, 40-7. St. Monica's placed three boys on the honor teams, while Brea-Olinda, champion in "A" Division play, also placed three. Bob McCutcheon's Mustangs from Needles, "small school" division title winners over Lutheran, 13-9, placed two men. Only other teams to place as many as two players on the teams were Laguna Beach and Carlsbad, the latter winner of San Diego's Palomar League title.

Small schools player of the year honors were accorded Hemet High School halfback, Ken Martin, who led his Bulldogs teammates to a championship season in the De Anza League and ten straight victories. Hemet met Laguna in the "A" group playoffs, dropping a hard-fought 14-13 decision to the Artists, who went on to the finals, losing to Brea-Olinda, 32-7.

Martin, a 5'10", 190-pound, Jon Arnett-type runner, scored 132 points for the season and passed for eight touchdowns. He ran for over 1,000 yards, as he did last year as a first team CIF performer, and gained much additional yardage for his team through the air lanes. Over the past two seasons Ken has been a great defensive player also, performing at either the halfback or safety positions. He intercepted nine tosses this season and 21 throws over the past two years. What makes Ken's achievements so remarkable this year is the fact that he was involved in a serious auto accident last year during Christmas vacation, requiring considerable repair work to one of his legs. Ken's coach, Robert Owens, called his ace halfback better than ever this season.

Martin will be presented with his player of the year medal award at the 26th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 19, at 10:30 a.m. Ken will be joined by players and their coaches at the annual morning ceremony and luncheon, at which time other personalities from the gridiron past will be on hand to pay tribute to this season's star players.

Besides Martin, two other first-team backfield selections were honored on the all-star team last season. Tim Foley, Fermin-Lasuen fullback, was a third-team pick in '61, while Brea-Olinda's Al Davis was named to last year's second team. A third team choice this year, Steve Hovely of Villanova repeated his selection of one year ago.

Coaches of championship teams in 1962 — Loyola's Lew Stueck (AAAA), South Pasadena's Ray Solari (AAA), Fermin Lasuen's Robert Baiz (AA), Brea-Olinda head coach Glen Hastings (A) and Needles' headman Bob McCutcheon (small schools) — will be on the receiving end of silver tumbler awards for having directed their respective teams to divisional titles.

All first team picks on this year's "small schools" team are seniors. Four juniors dot the second team roster, while two junior backs were honored on the third team. The Helms All-Southern California Board of Athletics program has been going on continuously since its inception in 1937.

THE ALL-LOS ANGELES CITY HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM FOR THE 1962 SEASON

FOR RELEASE: FRIDAY AFTERNOON, DEC. 28 and Saturday a.m.

Again, as in 1961, Manual Arts High School ran off with the Los Angeles City Football Team Championship, winning the tough Southern League championship and then advancing through the playoffs to a final-game victory over Marine-League co-champ Banning, 35-7. Coach Jim Blewett, coming back into city play this year with three players off last year's all-city team, made it 16 Los Angeles City Championships for Manual Arts over the past 50 years, nine of them with the venerable Blewett at the helm.

And it was Manual Arts leading the parade when it came time to select the 1962 All-Los Angeles City grid teams. The Tollers had five representatives on the 1962 All-City selections, three on the first team. Birmingham, the city's highest scoring team in league play with 171 points in five games, placed four of its stalwarts, with three of them gaining first team recognition.

"Player of the year" balloting was spirited during the Helms five-hour selection meeting, with San Pedro tailback, Ronnie Barber, finally winning the coveted title. Barber, an All-City choice last year, led San Pedro to a triple tie for first place in Marine League action this year and did not have the opportunity to compete in the playoffs due to a loss of the coin flip. Barber, a single-wing tailback in coach Bill Seixas' versatile Pirate attack, had a 1,161-yard total offense mark over the past season. Ron gained 843 yards running and completed 50 percent of his passes for an additional 318 yards. Last year, Barber was also named the Marine League's top performer and his two-year statistics show him accounting for 2,508 yards in total offense and 31 TDs. Of this total, 1,819 yards were gained rushing. Over a two-year span, Barber accounted for an average of 179 yards per game in total offense and a six-yard average running.

Ronnie Barber will receive his "player of the year" medal award at the 26th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 19, at 10:30 a.m. At this time, all those boys named for All-Los Angeles City Football Team honors will be presented with framed scroll awards from All-Southern California Board of Football.

Twenty Los Angeles high schools are represented on this year's All-Los Angeles City team. Schools to place more than one performer on the honor teams are Manual Arts (5), Birmingham (4)... two of them being juniors on the first team, San Pedro, Banning, Los Angeles, Fairfax, Gardena and Lincoln each with two.

Six players on this year's All-City team were picked last season also. Manual Arts tackle, Harry Wells, and Ron Barber were 1961 first team selections, while two of this year's first-team backfield -- Clayton Calhoun of Manual and Alex Sotomayor of Garfield -- were second team choices last fall. Third team end, Jerry Lewis from Manual, was second team pick last year and Sterling Mansfield, Birmingham center, was again named to the third team.

Six juniors named to the three honor teams will have the opportunity to shine on the gridiron again next season. Marv Adamo and Don McSwain, both of Birmingham, should make coach George Goff very happy as returning lettermen next year. Both second-team tackles -- Vern Loveridge and Jack O'Malley -- will be back next fall, as will third-teamers Tony Kochinas and Dann Boyd.

Coach Jim Blewett's Manual Arts Toilers led the way in placing players on the 1962 All-Southern League football team as released today by members of the Los Angeles City Board of Football. Manual Arts, winner of the L.A. City grid title by virtue of its 35-7 victory over Marine League co-champ Banning, also boasts league "player of the year" in scatback, Clayton Calhoun. The annual grid selections were made at Helms Hall.

Manual Arts placed five men on the first team and two on the second, while runner-up Los Angeles High landed four performers on the first team. Calhoun, named by the Helms Board as top performer in the league for 1962, wound up the city's top scorer with 90 points on 11 TDs, 21 PATs and a lone field goal. The 5'10, 180-pound senior was a ball of fire on offense and called "good on defense" by coach Blewett.

Three first team selections from Manual Arts were top choices for the team last year. Jerry Lewis, Harry Wells and Clayton Calhoun were all-league on last year's city title team.

Three other boys moved up to the first squad from last year's second team. They are LA's Charles Butler, center Richard Zarlow from Dorsey and Fremont halfback, Bob McKeever.

League standings for 1962 were as follows: Manual (5-0), LA (4-1), Washington (2-2-1), Fremont (2-3), Jefferson (1-4) and Dorsey (0-4-1). Manual scored 129 points in five league games and 67 points in three city playoff battles. In the playoffs, Manual beat Birmingham, 32-20, tied with Lincoln, 0-0, but going into the finals because of more 1st downs, and wholloped Banning 35-7 in the city finale.

As in past years, all those boys named for honors by the L.A. City Board of Football will receive special scroll awards from Helms Athletic Foundation. Southern League Player of the Year, Clayton Calhoun, will receive a special medal award at the 26th annual football awards party at Helms Hall on Saturday, January 19 at 10:30 a.m.

Coach George Goff's Birmingham Braves marched straight through five West-Valley League opponents, scoring a city league high of 171 points in the process, while allowing its opponents a mere 7 digits. It was no wonder then, that the Braves placed six players on the all-league first team when Helms' All-City Board of Football met at Helms Hall last week to pick its annual football teams.

Coach Goff's Gladiators averaged 3½ points in five league contests and a mere point and a half to its opponents. The Braves came into the City playoffs steamed up over the opportunity to make amends for last year's city finale loss to Manual Arts. Meeting in the first round, Manual had too many guns for the West-Valley champs, besting them, 32-20, however.

And it was Birmingham's Dudley Schusterick who hauled down "top player" honors for 1962. The Braves' quarterback, who passed for 90 of the 171 points scored by his team, was Coach Goff's main offensive weapon and the 5'11, 155-pounder certainly led his team to a most remarkable offensive season in 1962.

A pair of Brave linemen -- Don McSwain and Sterling Mansfield -- are repeaters from last season's first all-league team. Marv Adamo and John Thomas, first team linemen on the '62 team, were on the second squad last year. Jim Schmedding and Mike Reece, both of Granada Hills, are second team repeaters.

The 1962 standings behind Birmingham were Canoga Park (3-2), Cleveland (2-2-1), Taft (2-3), Reseda (2-3), and Granada Hills (0-4-1).

All-League players will receive special scroll awards from All-Los Angeles Board of Football for 1962. The scrolls will be mailed to league coaches for presentation at the schools. Dudley Schusterick will be presented with his "player of the year" medal award at the 26th annual All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program, to be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 19, at 10:30 a.m.

The very strengthly Marine League wound up in a three-way tie for first place in 1962 among San Pedro, Banning and Gardena. Consequently first-team representation on this year's All-Marine League Team is split up pretty evenly among these stalwart elevens.

Ron Barber, one of two juniors to make the All-City Team last year, was a unanimous "player of the year" choice for the second year in a row. Last year, Ronnie scored 72 points and was the city's third high scorer. He did just as well in 1962, posting 73 points on 12 TDs and a single PAT. Barber played tailback on coach Bill Seixas' single-wing powerhouse. Coach Seixas calls Ron "The greatest high school player I have seen or coached in my 14 years in the business."

The evenness of the play in the Marine League this year is quite evident from the fact that four players each from Banning and Gardena and three boys from San Pedro were placed on the all-league first team. Jordan end, John Wilkins, was the only "outsider" to break into the first team lineup.

Four players are back from last year's All-Marine teams. Ron Barber is the only first team repeater, while Banning's Eddie Kapu and Don Horn of Gardena elevated themselves from the second team of last year. Gamalier Lesure of San Pedro, a second-team selection this year, was on the 1961 first team.

The top three Marine League clubs finished the regular season with identical 3-1 records, while Jordan (1-3) and Narbonne (0-4) brought up the rear. Banning, winner of the coin flip to get into the city play-offs, beat Huntington Park, Eastern Loop king-pins, 26-13 and East-Valley co-champ Poly, 20-13, before falling to mighty Manual Arts, 35-7.

Surprising "little" Lincoln High School, winner of the Northern League football title for 1962 and "tamer" of city champion Manual Arts 0-0 in the semi-finals of the city championships, placed five players on the All-Northern League team as annual selections were made by the Los Angeles City Board of Football at Helms Hall last week.

Coach Skip Giancanelli's mighty mites topped their league in scoring with 65 points and finished the regular campaign with a 4-1 mark. Although not scoring as profusely as other city teams, Lincoln played a ball control type of game and seemed able to come up with the big play when needed. Lincoln fullback Tony Rosas and left half Tony Kochinas proved to be coach Giancanelli's aces through most of the season and provided the punch needed to control the ball. Noting this fact, the Helms Board selected Rosas and Kochinas as "co-players of the year" in Northern League action for 1962.

Five players repeated from last year's teams. Kochinas was a number one team selection last fall, while Rosas was on the second team. Vic Ruiz of Marshall and Dennis Ballardo of Franklin moved up to the first team from the second one year ago.

In the city playoffs, Lincoln defeated East-Valley League co-champ Grant, 18-14, and then "fell" to Manual Arts, 0-0, on the "more first downs" rule. Northern League standings for 1962 were: Lincoln (4-1), Verdugo Hills (3-1-1), Eagle Rock (2-1-2), Franklin (2-2-1), Belmont (2-3), Marshall (0-5).

All players named for 1962 Northern League honors will receive special scrolls from All-Los Angeles City Board of Football. Members making league and All-City selections are: Ralph Alexander (L.A. Herald-Examiner), Mike Erickson (L.A. Times), Cliff Gewecke (Huntington Park Signal), Rich Roberts (San Pedro News-Pilot) and Jerry Weiner (The Citizen-News). Tony Rosas and Tony Kochinas will receive their top player medal awards at the 26th annual football awards program at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 19 at 10:30 a.m.

Fairfax High School, coached by Harry Frum, won the tough Western League race on the gridiron for 1962, but it was University High School's quarterback, Steve Durbin, who carted off "player of the year" honors as members of All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall last week to make their annual all-league picks.

Fairfax, finishing the loop season with a 5-1 record, placed four performers on the league first team, while Westchester and University placed three and two respectively. "Player of the year" Durbin was the only repeater from last year's first team.

Coach Johnny Trump's University team wound up in third place behind Westchester and Fairfax, with a won-lost mark of 3-2-1. Steve Durbin, who scored 30 points on five TDs during the year, also was rated one of the city's finest passers and a sound defensive back.

Coach Harry Frum's Fairfax eleven placed both of its star backs -- Bob Ozar and Dave Stone -- on the first all-league team. Ozar was a second team pick in 1961. Alex Arnoldoff moved up to the first team this year while Hollywood's Bob Newbery was again named to the second team.

All-Los Angeles City League selections have been made by the L.A. City Board of Football for the past 25 years. Members of the 1962 board include, Ralph Alexander (L.A. Herald-Examiner), Mike Erickson (L.A. Times), Cliff Gewecke (Huntington Park Signal), Rich Roberts (San Pedro News-Pilot) and Jerry Weiner (The Citizen-News).

The 1962 All-Southern California Board of Football Awards Program will be held at Helms Hall on Saturday morning, January 19, at 10:30 a.m. At this time Western League "player of the year" Steve Durbin will be presented with his special medal award.

All-League certificates will be mailed to league coaches for presentation to their players at special programs in the various league schools.

Ray Vernoy's Eastern League champions, Huntington Park High School, led the way in placing players on the all-league team for 1962, when members of All-Los Angeles City Board of Football met at Helms Hall to make their annual grid selections last week. H.P. had a spotless league record, winning five games while losing none. Garfield, last year's league champion, finished second to coach Vernoy's club losing only once.

The Helms Board deliberated for some time over "player of the year" honors for the Eastern League and then decided upon splitting the laurels between Huntington Park's fine running back Richard Adams and Garfield's Alex Sotomayor. The latter, coach Al Padilla's ace quarterback, has been all-league for the past three seasons and was a second team All-City selection last year.

The diminutive Adams scored 62 points during 1962, making him the sixth high-scorer in city league play. He gained 640 yards on the ground and 296 through the air for a total offense mark of 936 yards and a 6.9 yard average (on the ground).

Alex Sotomayor has been the backbone of the Garfield attack for the past three seasons. This year Alex passed for over 1,000 yards and added 315 more running. For three years he has gained over 4,100 yards running and passing, with his passing accounting for 3,717 yards and 31 touchdowns.

Besides Sotomayor, Wilson end John Berokoff, and South Gate's able center Gary Barth, both repeat on this year's first team. Wilson tackle, Richard Lopez, named to the first team last year, was placed on the second unit this fall. Roosevelt's James Espinoza repeated on the second team.

League scroll awards will be presented to all players named for league honors by Helms Athletic Foundation. Scrolls will be mailed to the schools for presentation by the coaches.

Johnny Sanders' co-champion Grant High School eleven placed four players on the All-East-Valley League team for 1962 and 6'1, 208-pound Don DeGroote captured "player of the year" honors as the All-Los Angeles Board of Football met at Helms Hall to make its annual gridiron selections.

Sanders is high in his praise of DeGroote, whom he calls "the best blocking center I have ever coached and tremendous on defense." Grant placed four players on the all-league first team -- Paul Siegel and Bob Long in the backfield and end Gary Grate on the line with DeGroote. As co-champs of the East-Valley league, Grant got into the playoffs, but dropped its first game to Lincoln, 18-14.

Last year's all-star team was primarily a senior team and therefore only one player repeated from the 1961 squads -- Bud DiDonato of Monroe. A first team selection last year, Bud was named to the second team this year.

Grant and Polytechnic finished in a tie for league honors, both sporting a 4-1-1 mark for the league season. Then came Van Nuys (4-2) Monroe (3-3), San Fernando (2-2-2), Sylmar (1-5) and No. Hollywood (1-5). No. Hollywood's one win came on a forfeit from San Fernando.

The East-Valley League team, as was the case last year, is primarily a senior team. Only two juniors show up on the first team and just two on the second.

This marks the 26th year that Helms Athletic Foundation, through All-Los Angeles City Board of Football, has presented scroll awards to those boys named for honors in Los Angeles city football. Awards, in the form of scrolls and medals, are also presented to boys in other sports, as selected by the Helms Board.

Don DeGroote will be recipient of the Helms medal award for having been selected the top football player in the east-valley for 1962 at the 26th annual football awards program sponsored by Helms Athletic Foundation. The program will take place January 19th at Helms Hall.
