BISHOP AMAT QB, JOHN SCIARRA, NAMED "AAAA" DIVISION FOOTBALL PLAYER OF YEAR FOR 1971

FOR RELEASE: TUESDAY AFTERNOON, DEC. 28 and Wednesday a.m.

* * * DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO DEC. 28TH P.M.

[F]or the second consecutive year Bishop Amat High School has had its star football player named for Player of the Year honors in "AAAA" Division play. The C.I.F. Southern Section four A champions for a second year in a row, Amat had its star quarterback, John Sciarra, named for top-player honors by members of All-Southern California Board of Football. Last year, Pat Haden and John McKay were co-award winners off the title-winning Lancers. Amat won the title last year over Lakewood, 18-17, in a tie-breaking ending. This year the Lancers out-scored Western High School in the Coliseum finale, 37-21. Dennis McLaughlin's squad was 5-0 in league action during 1971, defeating Blair (26-0), Rosemead (21-14), and Pasadena (10-0) on the way to the '71 crown. Amat is the first "AAAA" repeater since Loyola's title-winners of 1962-63. Amat stretched its win streak to 16 straight in 1971, 12 wins coming this season.

Sciarra, the 6-0, 175-pound director of coach Dennis McLaughlin's grid juggernaut had no serious opposition for MVP honors. The talented QB, who scored over 100 points during the year, had a typical game against Western in the finals. He passed for three TDs, scored once on an 11-yard keeper and returned a punt 72 yards for another score. Western coach Jim Everett admitted, following the title game, "that punt return for a touchdown was the play that did us in. It was really demoralizing."

SCIARRA - ALL-STAR TEAM PLAYERS TO RECEIVE AWARDS AT PRO BOWL GAME

John Sciarra, coach Dennis McLaughlin and six other members of the title-winning Bishop Amat Lancers, along with all players named for 1971 all-star team honors, will be honored at the 22nd annual Pro Bowl Game to be played at Memorial Coliseum on Sunday, January 23rd. Game co-Director Glenn Davis has invited all honored players, along with their coaches, to be guests of the Newspaper Publishers Association on this celebrated occasion. Awards to the honored players will be made on the field prior to the start of the game.

Four all-star team performers return from last year's teams. El Rancho kicker, George Pantages, was a first-teamer in 1970; Jose Aguirre, kicker for Bishop Amat was named to the second team one year ago; Martin Medina, St. Paul's star fullback who gained close to 1,000 yards rushing, was a third-team choice in 1970; while Edison guard Jeff Carter is back from last year's second three A team.

As noted, Amat placed a near-record number on the honor teams with seven players named. Western, loser to Amat in the final playoff game, landed four performers, with North Torrance, Buena, Pasadena and St. Paul placing three players each. Twenty eight schools are represented on this year's selections, with 53 "AAAA" players named for honors. Only three under classmen made the teams.

CHARLES JUDGE, KENNEDY TAILBACK, SELECTED
"AAA" DIVISION GRIDDER OF YEAR FOR 1971

FOR RELEASE: WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, DEC. 29TH and Thursday a.m.
* * * DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO DEC. 29TH P.M.

Charles Judge, diminutive Kennedy High School tailback at 5-7 and 147 pounds, has been named CIF "AAA" Division Player of the Year for 1971 by All-Southern California Board of Football for the 1971 season...as released today by United Savings/Helms Athletic Foundation. Judge led the Kennedy High Fighting Irish to the school's first football title, winning in the finals, 14-0 over West Covina. Judge was a unanimous choice for MVP honors.

Co-Champions of the Freeway League with Fullerton, Kennedy defeated Edge-wood (26-6), Pioneer (14-0) and Crespi (20-7) before blanking the West Covina Spartans in the "AAA" CIF finals, 14-0. Judge was the team's star throughout the season and in the final game against West Covina he scored all his team's points.

Judge was co-captain of his team and described by his coach John Hangartner who, by the way, was CIF Player of the Year himself in 1954 from Glendale Hoover as "the finest back in Orange County...a tough, determined runner." Over the past two seasons Judge carried for close to 3,000 yards, 1,803 yards this year. He accounted for 19 TDs in 1971.

CHARLES JUDGE & HONORED "AAA" ALL-STAR TEAM PLAYERS TO RECEIVE AWARDS AT 22ND ANNUAL PRO BOWL GAME - L.A. COLISEUM, JAN. 23RD

All players named for honors on this year's "AAA" Division all-star teams have been invited to receive their scroll awards at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum prior to the playing of the 22nd annual Pro Bowl Game on Sunday, January 23, 1972. Players and coaches have been invited as guests of the Los Angeles Newspaper Publishers Association the game's sponsor. Awards to the all-star team players and championship team coaches will be made on the field just before game time.

Three players are back off last year's honor teams. Lompoc's Jim Surch was a first-team selection in 1970, while Newbury Park's Jerry Torgeson was a third-team pick. Ruben Elizalde of Pioneer was a second-team four A pick one year ago.

There are 34 high schools represented on the "AAA" honor teams, with West Covina, runners-up to Kennedy in three A play, leading the parade with five players named. Crespi, a semi-finalist, placed four performers on the honor teams, with champion Kennedy landed three. Los Altos and Upland also had three players named.

This marks the 35th year that All-Southern California Board of Football has honored outstanding young men from throughout the southland on its all-star teams. United Savings/Helms Athletic Foundation has made scroll and medallion awards available to the honored players over this period and also silver tumbler awards for the honored championship coaches.

ANDY ROUNDTREE (TEMPLE CITY), PAUL KINNE
(PASO ROBLES) & JON RHODES (L.A. BAPTIST)
WIN PLAYER OF YEAR GRID LAURELS FOR 1971

FOR RELEASE: THURSDAY AFTERNOON, DEC. 30TH and Friday a.m.

* * * DO NOT RELEASE PRIOR TO DEC. 30TH P.M.

Three outstanding football players from among the smaller C.I.F. Southern Section enrollment schools -- Andy Roundtree of Temple City, Paul Kinne of Paso Robles and Jon Rhodes of L.A. Baptist -- were accorded Player of the Year honors for 1971 as determined by United Savings/Helms Athletic Foundation's All-Southern California Board of Athletics. This year's selection meeting was held at Los Angeles' International Hotel, with over 20 sports journalists from throughout Southern California taking part in the selections.

Captain Andy Roundtree of the Temple City Rams led his team to another "AA" Division CIF title and helped stretch the school's win-string to 30 games. The Rams won the Rio Hondo League title and then marched through the likes of Royal Oak (21-14), Antelope Valley (26-14), Sonora (28-0) and St. John Bosco in the finals (28-18). Coach Bob Hitchcock rated his defensive ace (linebacker) as his top performer and labeled him "quick, strong and errorless."

Although losing to Rio Mesa 28-20 in the "A" Division playoff finale, the Paso Robles Bearcats' excellent halfback Paul Kinne was acclaimed Player of the Year. An all-around performer over the past three years at Paso Robles, Kinne scored nine TDs during playoff action, bringing his season scoring total to over 150 points. His coach describes Kinne as "the best back I have ever coached....over three years he's been our leading ground gainer, leading pass receiver, leading punter, leading scorer and leading defensive player, with 33 interceptions in three years."

Coach John Reardon's Rio Mesa Spartans won the "A" Division playoff vs. Paso Robles as noted above, defeating St. Joseph 23-10 and Rim of the World 10-7, before upsetting the Bearcats from Paso Robles.

Jon Rhodes led L.A. Baptist, free lancing in the Small Schools Division of the C.I.F. Southern Section this year, to the title with wins over Notre Dame of Riverside (1-0 in tie-breaker), Holtville (26-7) and Rosamond (20-13) in the finals. The Knights under coach Don Markham finished the season 10-2, with Jon Rhodes gaining over 1,000 yards and scoring close to 150 points for the season.

ROUNDTREE - KINNE - RHODES & ALL-STAR TEAM PLAYERS TO BE HONORED AT

22ND ANNUAL PRO BOWL GAME - L.A. COLISEUM, SUNDAY, JAN. 23RD - 1972

Players of the Year, all-star team members and their coaches have been invited to receive their United Savings/Helms Athletic Foundation awards at the 22nd annual Pro Bowl Game. Glenn Davis, on behalf of the Los Angeles Newspaper Publishers Association, has invited all players and their coaches to be guests of the Publishers Association and to appear on the field prior to the big Pro Bowl game to receive their awards and medallions.

AMF - VOIT TO AWARD BALLS TO HONORED PLAYERS AT PRO BOWL

As they have so kindly done over the past 20 years, AMF - VOIT will again make special souvenir footballs available to the honored southland football players. AMF - VOIT has thoughtfully remembered the All-Southern California team members since 1953.
