2000 ALL-CIF SOUTHERN SECTION FOOTBALL TEAM ANNOUNCED BY AREA COACHES

CERRITOS -- The 2000 All-CIF Southern Section Football Teams were announced today by the Southern California Interscholastic Football Coaches Association.

A total of 69 players were selected for either the first or second team with Division III Champion, Hart and Mater Dei leading the way with a total of five selections a piece. Division I Champion Long Beach Poly, Division II Champion Upland, Division VII Champion Los Altos and Tustin each placed three members.

Players and Coaches of the Year were also selected for all 13 divisions. Division I champ Poly saw Hershel Dennis (Co-Offense) and Raymond Tago (Defense) take home top honors. Loyola's Matt Ware was named Division I player of the Year, while Mater Dei's Matt Leinart shared top offensive player accolades with Dennis. Long Beach head coach Jerry Jaso took the coaching award.

In Division II, Upland swept all three top honors with Julian Williams (offense), Chris Barrios (defense) and Tim Salter (Coach of the Year).

Hart did the same in Division III with Kyle Matter (offense), Evan Allen (defense) and Mike Herrington (coach) taking the top prizes.

In Division VII, Los Altos joined Division II and III in sweeping the top categories. Felipe Aguilar and Ramon Martinez shared top-offensive-player awards, while Conquerors head coach Greg Gano was named Coach of the Year and his defensive lineman, Shaun Cody, was named Defensive Player of the Year.
