2001 ALL-CIF SOUTHERN SECTION FOOTBALL TEAM ANNOUNCED BY AREA COACHES

CERRITOS -- The 2001 All-CIF Southern Section Football Teams were announced today by the Southern California Interscholastic Football Coaches Association.

A total of 70 players were selected for either the first or second team with Division I Champion, Long Beach Poly leading the way with a total of six selections apiece. Division I semifinalist Los Alamitos grabbed four, while Mission Viejo, St. Bonaventure, Hart, Edison, Chino, South Hills and Thousand Oaks each placed three members.

Players and Coaches of the Year were also selected for all 13 divisions. Division I champ Poly swept all three categories as Hershel Dennis and Mercedes Lewis took top-honors on offense, while Manuel Wright was named Division I player of the Year on the defensive side of the ball. Long Beach head coach Raul Lara took the coaching award in his first season at the helm of the Jackrabbits.

In Division II, Mission Viejo swept all three top honors with Robbie DuBois (offense), Ryan Powdrell (defense) and Bob Johnson (Coach of the Year).

Hart did the same in Division III with the exception of the defense as Matt Moore (offense) became the fourth consecutive Hart quarterback to win offensive Player of the Year honors (2000-Kyle Kyle Bolter). Co-Defensive Players of the Year are Chris Frome from hart and Michael Okwo from Mira Costa. Hart coach Mike Herrington was named Coach of the Year.

In Division VII, Charter Oak joined Division III in almost sweeping the top categories. Cory Cranford (Charter Oak) and Sal Ortiz (Los Altos) shared top-defensive player awards, while Chargers head coach Lou Farrar was named Coach of the Year and his running back, Keith Harris, was named Offensive Player of the Year. In Division IX Brea Olinda swept all honors as Manuel Gutierrez took Offensive Player of the Year accolades. Steve Stagnaro was named the Defensive standout and coach Jon Looney was crowned Coach of the Year.

Not surprisingly, St. Bonaventure swept Division XI with Lorenzo Booker (offense), Brandon Mascarro (defense) and Jon Mack (coach) accepting top-honors.

Division XII saw Arrowhead Christian make a clean sweep. Alex Ballard was named Offensive Player of the Year; Casey Overholt was named Defensive Player of the Year; and coach Dan Finfrock was named the top-coach.

The selection process included 15 coaches from around the CIF-SS and represented all 13 divisions. Also included in the process were various writers from Southern California area.
