RIVERSIDE POLY BOYS BASKETBALL PROGRAM PLACED ON PROBATION

LOS ALAMITOS, CA – Due to violations of CIF Bylaws, the Riverside Poly High School Boys Basketball program has been placed on probationary status, effective immediately.

A school being placed on probationary status means the school is ineligible to participate in the 2022-2023 CIF Southern Section Boys Basketball Championships. In addition, Riverside Poly High School Boys Varsity Basketball team is required to forfeit all regular season/league and playoff contests played during the 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 school years.

Riverside Poly High School may request reinstatement to full participation in Boys Basketball for the 2023-2024 school year by November 1, 2023.

Relevant bylaws regarding this decision are the following:

CIF Bylaw 500C, Authorized Participation

CIF Bylaws 503, 503A, 503B, Administrative Oversight

CIF Southern Section Bylaw 500.2, Forfeiture Status

CIF Southern Section Bylaws 3411.A and 3411.C, Playoff Eligibility

With these imposed penalties and due to California State Student Privacy laws, the CIF-SS will have no further comment and will direct any further inquiry to the school and/or school district.
