CATHEDRAL HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL PROGRAM PLACED ON PROBATION

LOS ALAMITOS, CA – Due to violations of CIF Bylaws, the Cathedral High School (Los Angeles) football program has been placed on probationary status, effective immediately.

A school being placed on probationary status means the school is ineligible to participate in the 2023-2024 CIF Southern Section Football Championship playoffs.

Cathedral High School may request reinstatement to full participation in football for the 2024-2025 school year by August 23, 2024.

Relevant bylaws regarding this decision are the following:

CIF Bylaw 202A, 202B(5), Valid Residential Change

CIF Bylaws 503, 503A, 503B, Administrative Oversight

CIF Southern Section Bylaws 3511.A and 3511.C, Playoff Eligibility

With these imposed penalties and due to California State Student Privacy laws, the CIF-SS will have no further comment and will direct any further inquiry to the school and/or school district.
