G	JOE OLIVER.	Hollywood . . .	5'09	152	Sr.	Shines on Def. Team Player

COMMENT: The All-Los Angeles City High School Team for 1939 has no apparent weakness, for it is a high-scoring machine and carries an abundance of defensive strength. Proof that the squad has unusual offensive power is the fact that its five players, together, (based on their past season performances) would be able to emass a total of better than 68 points PER GAME! Lindsley is the scoring sensation, having chalked up 306 points this year. He tallied 45 pts. against Verdugo Hills, and accounted for 33 and 28 points in other games. Lindsley would be given plenty of support in the basket shooting division from Jack Tweedie and George Metkovich, a pair of sharp-shooting eces. Seminoff, at guard, is a brilliant player both on offense and defense. He is, perhaps, the standout player (all-around ability) of the City League Basketball season of 1939. Oliver is an exceptional defensive man, is alert, aggressive, and noted for his splendid TEAM play.

G	JOE OLIVER	Hollywood	5'09	152	Sr.	Good in all Depts. Team pl.

COMMENT: The All-Western League Team is a strengthy unit, for it possesses unusual scoring power, speed and a strong defense. Thompson, Rohrer and Staples make up a high-scoring trio, while Fryer and Oliver are not far behind in their ability to toss baskets. The All-Western is blessed with a couple of guards, Staples and Oliver, who rank with the best that the Western League has produced in several years.

COMMENT: Pity the opposing squad that might tangle with the All-San Fernando Valley League mythical aggregation! With such uncanny basket tossers as Lindsley, Banks, Boerner, Martin and Yurosek in the All-San Fernando Valley lineup, an adversary quintet would be constantly kept in "hot water." Lindsley tallied 306 points during the past sn., establishing a City-League record in that respect. He also set a City-League mark for one game, registering 45 points against Verdugo Hills.

G	DAVID FLYNN	Jefferson . . .	5'10	175	Sr.	Rugged Def. player. Passer.

COMMENT: The All-Southern League unit has an abundance of scoring power, and would give an opponent squad no end of trouble in that connection. The All-Southern also has several defensive strongholds in the forms of Metkovich, Hirsch and Flynn. Hirsch, an outstanding Forward, has been shifted to a guard post because of his defensive ability -- which was noted by a number of Southern League mentors. Rock, an agile 135 pounder who tosses baskets left-handed, is a hard man to halt within the foul-line. Chenard is always a scoring threat. Metkovich is probably the finest all-around player in the Southern League.

G	BEN STANTON.	El Segundo. . .	6'02	190	Jr.	Def. Floor-man. Good Shot.

COMMENT: The All-Marine League aggregation is made up of a group of rangy huskies, and would stack up favorably with any other mythical all-league team. The two forwards and center, Tweedie, Matulich and Lee are consistent scorers as well as strong defensive competitors. Clutter and Stanton, at the guard posts, would be a tough combination to get around.

ALL-LOS ANGELES CITY HIGH SCHOOL "COACH OF THE YEAR" FOR 1939

* * * *

CARROLL LOCKRIDGE, HOLLYWOOD HIGH SCHOOL COACH, CHOSEN FOR HONORS

At meeting held at offices of Helms Athletic Foundation, on Wednesday, February 1st, members of ALL SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BOARD OF BASKETBALL selected C A R R O L L L O C K R I D G E, HOLLYWOOD HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL COACH, as the LOS ANGELES CITY HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL "COACH OF THE YEAR."

Members of ALL SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BOARD OF BASKETBALL awarded foremost honors to Carroll Lockridge, because of his splendid coaching achievement at Hollywood High School during the past Basketball season. Although Lockridge began the season without a single letterman, he brought his squad through to a Western League championship, winning 10 games and losing 2. Both losses which the Redshirts suffered, were by margins of three points or less. In addition to its fine showing in league competition, the Hollywood team won 9 of its 10 practice skirmishes, losing only to Roosevelt. Victories were gained over such squads as Fremont, Marshall, Santa Monica, Manual Arts, Loyola, Huntington Park and North Hollywood.

CARROLL OTTO LOCKRIDGE was born at North English, Iowa on July 10, 1906. He attended North English High School, where he starred in Football, Basketball and Track. Carroll was a quarterback on the North English gridiron squad, played a forward position on the Basketball quintet, and competed in high and low hurdles in track competition. He was graduated from North English High School in 1924.

Lockridge matriculated at Iowa Wesleyan University, receiving his diploma in 1928. At Iowa Wesleyan, Carroll cavorted as a halfback on the pigskin eleven, and continued his activity in track and field, in the hurdle events.

Orofino High School, of Orofino, Idaho, secured the services of Lockridge, as athletic coach, in 1929. Carroll coached all sports at Orofino High School for the next three years. His track and field squad won the County championship for three consecutive seasons.

Lockridge took up residence at Ely, Nevada in 1932, spending the next four years as Head Track and Field Coach at White Pine County High School. His team captured the Nevada State Track and Field Meet championship in 1935.

Carroll "went Hollywood" in 1936, landing at Hollywood High School. There, he took over the duties of Head Basketball Coach, and has come through with "flying colors." Lockridge's Redshirts have won the Western League Basketball title for the past three years. The past season was considered Carroll's most notable year of coaching, however, for he began the year from scratch, without a single letterman.
