IRVIN NOREN, ALAN GRIMLEY, VIC LARSON, CHOSEN PLAYERS OF YEAR

Members of All Southern California Board of Basketball have chosen Irvin Noren, of Pasadena Junior College; Alan Grimley, of Glendale High School, and Vic Larson of Washington High School, Los Angeles, for Southern California Player of the Year honors for the 1943 Basketball season. Noren was chosen from the junior college division, Grimley was chosen from the C.I.F. division, while Larson was chosen from Los Angeles City High School division.

Irvin Noren, who alternated at forward and guard, was one of Southern California's highest scoring junior college players. He tallied a total of 402 points in 25 contests during the season, trailing only his teammate, Mel Baer, who chalked up 500 digits. In addition to being a highly accurate shot, Noren was a brilliant defensive player. It was the second time in two years that Noren has been selected for Player of the Year honors by All Southern California Board of Basketball. Noren was chosen All-Southern California High School Player of the Year in 1942, while competing for the Pasadena Junior College Lower Division team. Noren was recently inducted into the United States Army. He should make Uncle Sam a fine soldier. Noren stood 6 feet in height, and weighed 178 pounds.

Alan Grimley of Glendale High School was, in the opinion of All Southern California Board of Basketball, the outstanding basketball competitor in C.I.F. ranks this season. Although Grimley played the position of guard, he was the highest scorer of the Glendale team which defeated both Redondo and Pasadena, C.I.F. championship play finalists. Glendale did not enter the C.I.F. playoffs, despite the fact it was the champion team of the Foothill League. Grimley was an exceptional defensive player, and was a marked man on offense. Nevertheless, he was high-point man for Glendale in game-after game. Alan Grimley is the second Glendale High School athlete to gain Player of the Year honors, Frank Albert having been chosen in 1937, while performing for the Glendale football squad. Grimley is now serving Uncle Sam in the U.S. Navy.

Vic Larson, Washington High School captain and guard, whom members of All Southern California Board of Basketball selected as the foremost player of the 1943 Los Angeles City High School season, ranks as one of the finest players ever turned out in Los Angeles City ranks. Ernie Holbrook, University of Southern California coach who also tutors the Washington High School quintet, regards Larson the finest high school player he has ever coached. In 8 Southern League games this year, Larson tallied a total of 67 points -- from a guard position. Larson was Washington's leading scorer. The Washington quintet captured the Southern League championship. Larson is a Senior, stands 5 feet ten inches in height, and weighs 175.

Irvin Noren, Alan Grimley, and Vic Larson will be honored at Silverwoods Hall of Fame on Saturday, April 10th, in recognition of their having been chosen for Player of the Year honors for the 1943 Basketball season. Helms Athletic Foundation medals will be awarded to Noren, Grimley and Larson. However, inasmuch as Noren and Grimley are now in the Service, Vic Larson will be the only one of the three to receive his award personally at Silverwoods Hall of Fame on April 10th. Noren and Grimley will be represented by the sports editors of their respective school newspapers. The sports editors of the Pasadena and Glendale newspapers will accept the Helms awards on behalf of Noren and Grimley, and COMMENTS: Lucas, Trigg, Johnson, Larson and Yates are all fine shots. Trigg, Johnson, Larson and Yates excelled on defense. All of the members of the All-City First Team were splendid floor men and ball handlers. Yates played forward in a number of games. The All-City five has a point average of 11.8 for League play. Every player chosen for the All-City quintet was the sparkplug of his respective team.

COMMENTS: Johnson and Fries were exceptional shots. Fries, just a Junior in School, led the City Leagues in scoring, with 177 in 10 games. His point average of 17.7 was also tops. Fries scored 40 points in one game, against Riis. Hicks was noted for his outstanding defensive play, and is exceedingly fast for a big fellow. The Los Angeles High offense was built around Baum. He was, however, particularly strong on defense.

G	GLEN DAVIS.	Bonita (LaVerne)	Sr.		5' 9	170	Fine shot. IX Int Def.

COMMENTS: Eckerman was the highest scoring player in Southern California. Sparked Pasadena offense which carried team to C.I.F. finals. Gilmore was the ace in a fast moving Montebello squad which rolled up 982 points in 24 contests. Glasson and Adamson played position of center, but were moved to forward positions on the All-C.I.F. teams. Both were brilliant all-around players. Virgil Fondy captured the Citrus Belt League scoring title for the second year. He was the mainstay of team which went into C.I.F. semi-finals. Fondy made 27 points in one game. He is one of San Bernardino's greatest athletes, having starred in baseball and football, in addition to basketball.

Bob Hobbs of Orange, was one of the finest players in Southern California. He had an 18.5 average in 12 games. Ernest Johnson was a standout in a Fullerton team which was noted for its defensive play. Glendale's Alan Grimley roamed the court from basket to basket. He was a splendid defensive player and a fine shot. Jordan's Schlect was the same type of player. Schlect was chosen All-City in the Long Beach Area. Glen Davis was almost as great on the basketball court as he was on the gridiron. In addition to playing a bang-up game on defense, Davis managed to chalk up 151 points in 14 games.

Glen Davis without a doubt, is the greatest high school athlete ever produced in Southern California. He was a brilliant backfield star in football, exceptional basketball player, one of the outstanding sprinters of Southern California, and an outstanding baseball player, performing in the outfield.

HOLMS ATHLETIC FOUNDATION AWARDS

Players chosen on the First and Second All-Southern California High School Basketball Teams will be presented with the Holms Athletic Foundation official All Southern California Board of Basketball award.

POS.	P L A Y E R	T E A M	YEAR IN		HEIGHT	WEIGHT	R E M A R K S
			SCHOOL
F	MEL BAER,	Pasadena	2ND		6' 3	170	500 points 25 games
F	JEFF KEMP	Compton	2ND		6' 0	170	310 points 24 games
C	NICK BUZOLICH	Compton	1ST		6' 7	195	365 points 22 games
G	IRVIN NOREN	Pasadena	1ST		6' 0	178	402 points 25 games
G	AUDREY ROCK	Compton	2ND		5'11	170	104 points 18 games

COMMENT: Baer, Kemp, Buzolich, Noren and Rock make up the greatest mythical All-Southern California Junior College quintet of all time. Such a lineup could have held its own in any collegiate conference in the country. The five players tallied a total of 1,681 points in 23 games, average. Had they played together during the season, the five would have averaged 73 points a game!

Baer, it is believed, established a Southern California Junior College record in chalking up a total of 500 points for the season. The Pasadena flash averaged 20 points per game. Irv Noren, also of Pasadena, wasn't far behind, having a total of 402 points in 25 conflicts.

Kemp, Buzolich and Rock, of Compton, performed brilliantly throughout the year, playing sensational basketball not only against junior college teams, but against collegiate quintets -- including Occidental, Cal Tech, Loyola, La Verne, and U.S.C. and U.C.L.A. freshman teams.

Noren, who is now in the Army, was chosen Southern California High School Basketball Player of the Year in 1942, while performing for the Pasadena Junior College Lower Division team. Noren is also a splendid baseball pitcher. Noren divided his time at the positions of guard and forward on the Pasadena basketball team.

Members of All Southern California Board of Basketball pondered at length over the fact that five players from two junior colleges, both in the Metropolitan Division, were selected for the All-Southern California Team. However, Board members were of the firm belief that to omit any one of the five players who were chosen for honors, an injustice would be done to the particular player. Baer, Kemp, Buzolich, Noren and Rock, without question, were the five most outstanding players of Southern California Junior College basketball during the 1943 season.

Others who were considered for the All-Southern California Junior College Team were Saul, forward; and Stark, guard, both of Fullerton; Halcy, forward, and Winters, guard, of Compton; Bushman, forward, Riverside; Crow, conter, Pomona; Racine, guard, Glendale; Adair, conter, San Bernardino; and Blacker, Pasadena, a guard.

Players chosen for the All-Southern California Junior College Basketball team will be presented with Helms Athletic Foundation official All Southern California Board of Basketball certificate awards.
